SMALLER CIGARS.

The Lovers of the Weed Will Not Get as Much Havana For a Quarter.

A reporter of the Bazoo yesterday asked Clem Honkomp, of the firm of Honkomp & Schmidt, what effect the McKinley bill would have on the price of home-made Havana cigars.

I'll tell you," replied Counci man Honkomp, and it is no secret of the trade or to retail dealers. Every manufacturer will have to make his HE McKinley bill won't special ten cent brands one-eighth of on inch smal er. The retailer will pay the same price as heretofore and stock is large and must the consumer will get a Havana filled be reduced. Will sell cigar at the old price of three for a quarter. The retailer and the manutacturer will make the same profit as before the bill go's into effect, but the smoker loses just one eighth of an inch from his cigar-that's all that there is in it."

> "Why, do you cut off an eighth of an inch from the cigars and make them smaller" asked the reporter.

> "Because in the small saving," replied Mr. Honkonp, "We are protecting our workingmen. We will pay them the same wages we have been paying them for the reason that they earn all we give them and cannot smoker is the only one who suffers by the bill and there will be no kick coming from them when they understand that they are helping to maintain living wages."

> "The combine or trust among the manufacturers of chewing tobacco,' continued Mr. Honkomp have done themselves a neat turn which does not fool any one well posted on the tariff as imposed by the McKinley bill. Before its passage they raised the wholesale price of chewing tobacco four cents per pound and as soon as the bill goes into effect (as they have notified their customers) they will take off two cents cents per

A Girl Worth Having.

A few weeks ago I read in your paper Mr. Morehead's experience in the Plating Business, in which he cleared $167.85 in a month; but beat that if I am a girl. I sent as he directed and got a Plater, and cleared $208.17 in one mouth. Can any of spoons, forks or jewelry to plate at every house. Send $3 to W. H. Griffith & Co., Zanesville, Ohio, and they will send you a Plater, and you can make money enough in three ours to pay for it, or address them for circulars. There is plenty of work to do in both city and country; then why should any person be poor or out of employment with such an opportunity at hand. I hope my experience will help others as much as Mr. Morehead's did me. Laura B.-

Papa lugram,

The Bazoo this morning takes off its hot to Grand Pa B. H. Ingram. Mr. Ingram received a message yesterday advising him of the arrival of a daughter in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edmon G. Walton, Minneapolis, Minn.

Carthage, Ill., October 31.-A fight occurred at a country dance at the home of John Porter, some three miles out of this city, last night, in at the time he had met with foul which Joseph Munson was badly play. cut with a knife, and Moses Printy dangerously wounded. Between seventy or eighty couples were dancing, when Moses Printy made his appearance on the premises and was ordered away by one of the women. Printy refused to go, and a general fight ensued, in which brickbats, clubs, flatirons and knives were freely used. One or two parties have fled. It is feared Munson will die.

disappear a on Scrober 6, telling his tamily to forward his mail to Lawrenceburg, Ind. But as nothing was beard of him afterwards it was feared But circumstances very plainly point now in another direction. Mrs. Bettie Sanders, a widow about thirty years ol who had been staying at Storts' since last spring, left here about the same day he did, saying she was going to visit friends near Orleans, Ind. now seems that neither Stotts nor Mrs. Sanders went to their pretended destinations, as he has never called for his mail at Lawrenceberg, and Mrs. Sanders' brother was here from Orleans last week and said she had never been there. It appears they met in Louisville as they tlemen from here who knows Stotts. but the latter avoided him. Stotis brothers of Odon, Ind , went to Louis vide to bunt him, and it south. Stotis leaves a great many debts behind, his home being heavily mortgaged His family are left in straightened circumstances. This will be a great surprise to Stotts friends, as he is well known throughan institute instructor and is one of the executive committee of the Southern Indiana Teachers' Association. Great indignation is expressed by the citizens over Stott's conduct.

A little bit this side of Sedalia a pretty young girl got on the train and took her seat quietly. In a few moments a flashly dressed young man came in the car, and although vacant seats were numerous, sat in the one by the girl, Other passengers noticed the young girl begin to look une sy, and a little later she began to cry. The man then left her. The passenger agent got up and spoke to the girl and then he was seen approaching the masher who had taken his seat in the other end of che car. Without aying a word, he struck the fellow with terrific force, knocking his head through the window, and followed it up by giving him a magnificent whipping.
